viii) Different type of Scholarship in BPSMV

After that Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor interacted with the DRs, CRs, CPS and HRs etc. The views shared by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor with the students' representatives are as under:

1. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor emphasized on the importance of lesson plan given by the teachers to the students and enquired the students whether they are being given lesson plan by their teachers. Most of the students denied the same. In this respect, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor assured the students that she will hold a meeting with all HODs on this issue and the teachers will be directed to give/provide the lesson plan to all the concerned students. Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor further asked the students that in case the lesson plans are not provided to them by the teachers within one month then CRs must report to the DSW office.

Action by - All HODs

2. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor expressed her concern on the matter of low usage of books and journals by the students in the library. In this connection, the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor said that a number of costly books and journals are purchased by the University in addition to e-subscription of about 5000 journals, but the students are not regularly visiting the library and optimum usage of books and journals purchased by the university for the students is not done. She also told that list of e-Journals being subscribed alongwith procedure to access them should be displayed outside the library.

Action by – Central Librarian

3. The Vice-Chancellor told the students that Placement Cells are established at Department level in BPS Mahila Vishwavidyalaya. However, she emphasized that students should play a greater role in placement activities with guidance and assistance of teachers.

Action by – Director UPACC

4. The Vice-Chancellor suggested the students that in case they have any suggestion for betterment of facilities to be provided to them by the university, they should use the suggestion boxes installed in all Hostels & Shopping Complex. This will let us know new and innovative ways of improving the academic ambience of the university. The complaints must be written in Complaint Register in the Hostels for early redressal.

5. The Vice-Chancellor told the students that Mrs. Geeta Bhukal, Hon'ble Education Minister, Haryana has given the grant to BPSMV for the purchase of bicycles for students and purchase of 160 bicycle is in progress. She also told that shortly our University will receive Golf Cart and Battery operated e-rickshaws to help students to commute in university campus.
6. The University Bus will also frequently make round trip between main gate to hostels of BPSMV from 8.45 AM to 9.15 AM daily, for the benefit of students.

Action by – AR (Transport)

7. The Vice-Chancellor also told the students that the DSW is a good communication channel between the Vice-Chancellor and the students. She appreciated the efforts put in by Dr. Mahesh Dadhich as DSW and requested all the students this channel be used more frequently for fast redressal of their issues. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor also cautioned the students regarding misuse of social electronic media by some students. She mentioned that irresponsible use of social media can adversely affect the reputation of the university and could at times be dangerous for students. She mentioned that every student should take care that pages like “BPS Confessions” are not misused by some miscreants.

After that an interaction session started and all the DRs, CRs, CPs and HRs gave their introduction one by one.
